DEDICATION

DEDICATION:

The class of 1957 proudly dedicates this edition of the "Athenian" to Anna M. Evgenikas, Athens High School's adopted orphan girl from Greece. In the past, the yearbooks have dedicated to a person who has been a help to all of us or a team which has brought us great honor and pride. This year, however, we are dedicating the book to Anna because we feel that she has contributed as much to A. H. S. through her faith and courage as any of us who are lucky enough to live in the United States.

MEMORIAM

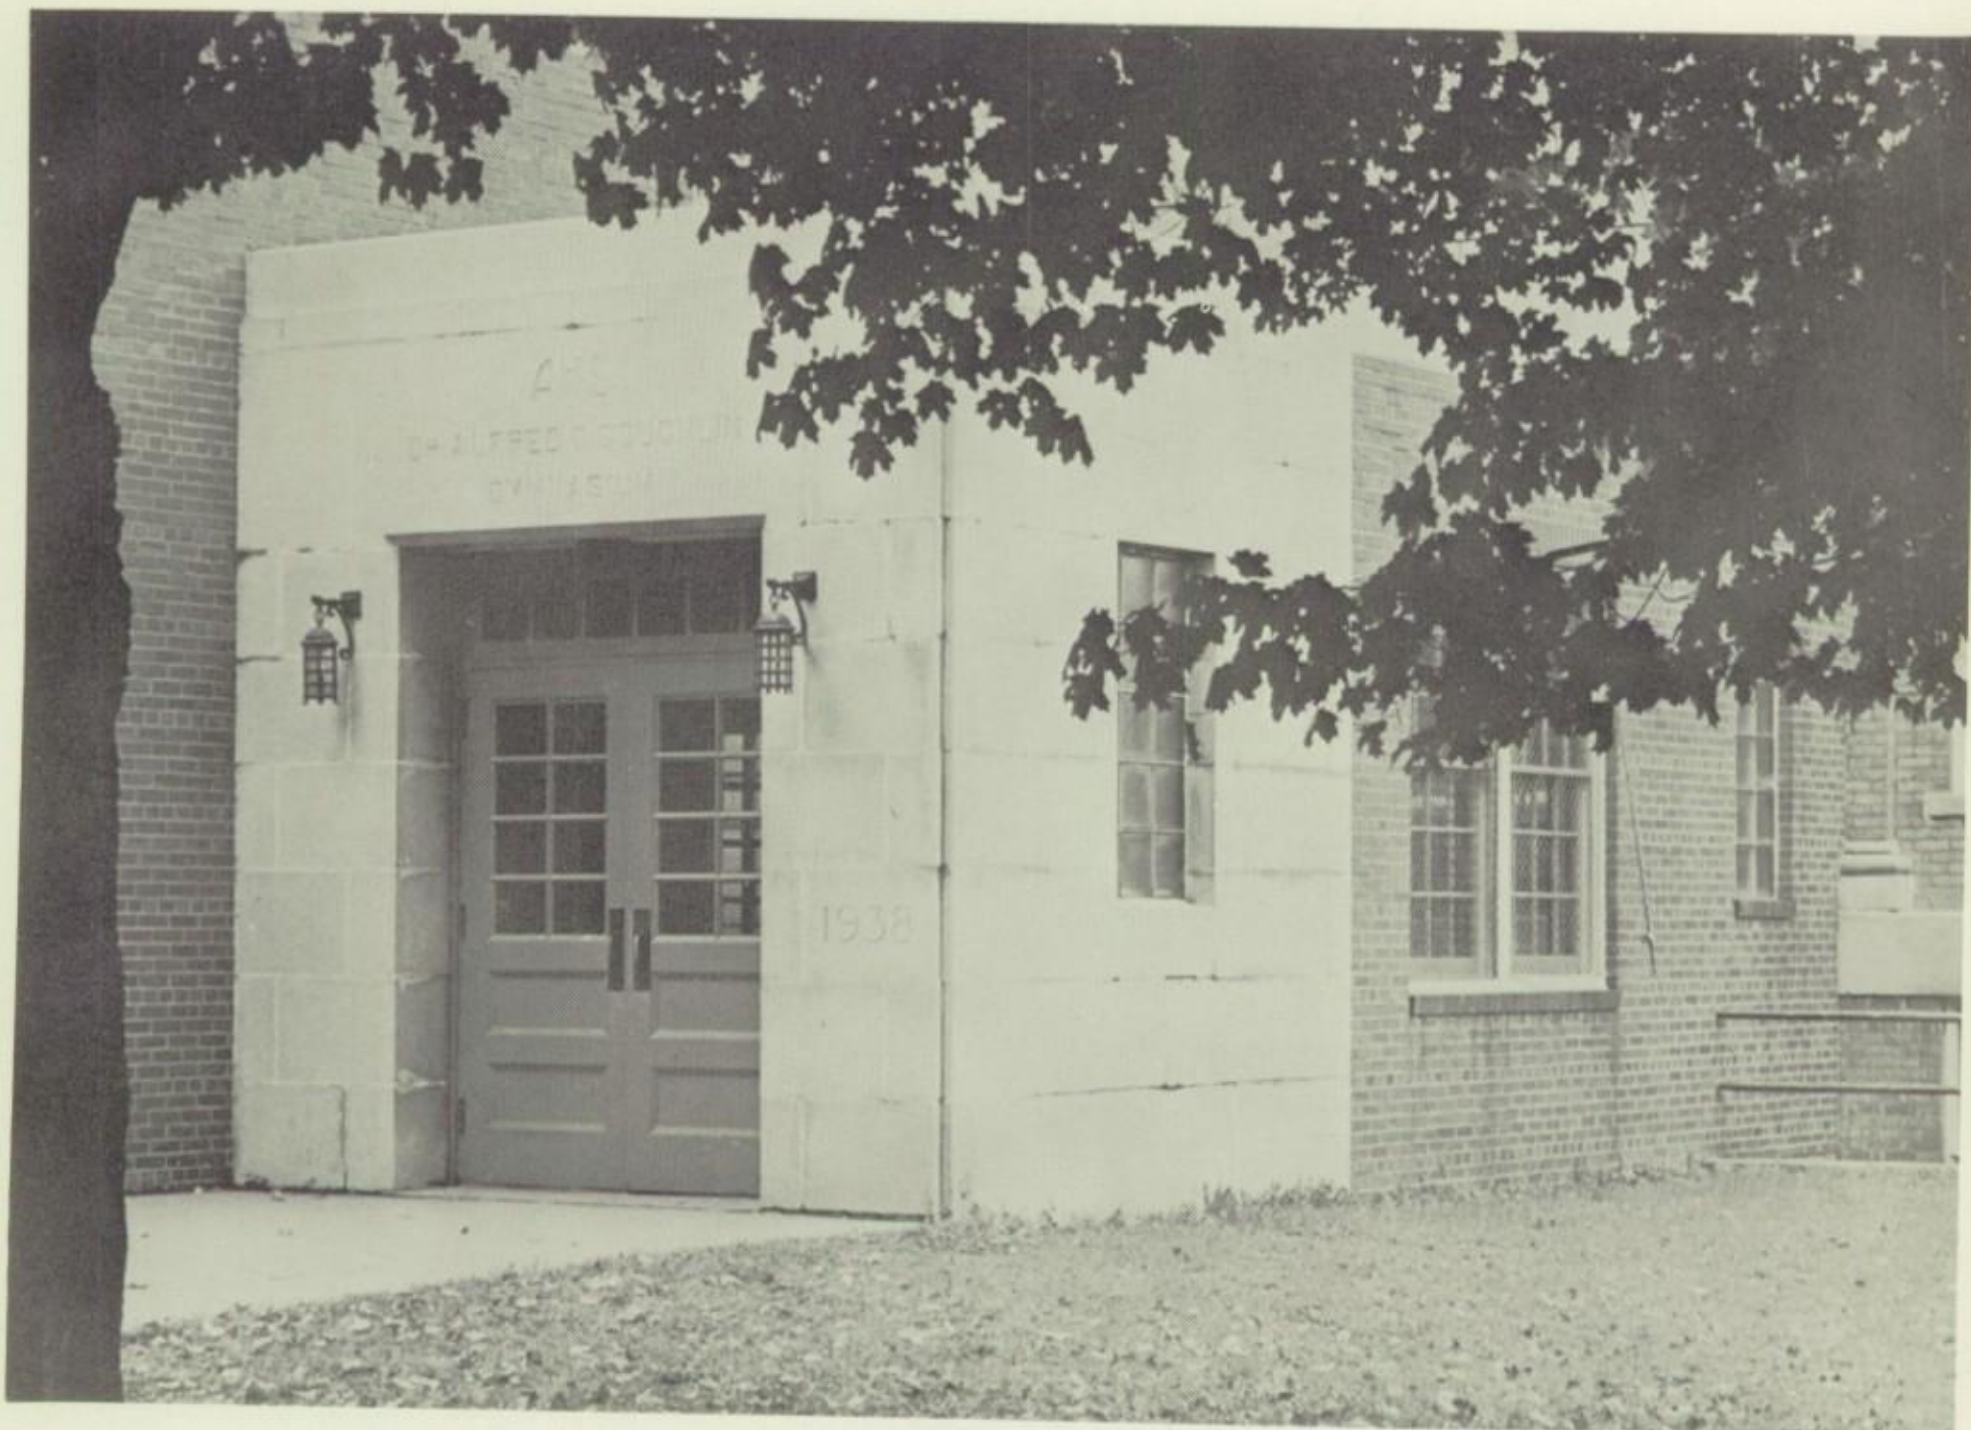

.....To William Zurn, without whom the class of 1957 will never be the same. We can never fully show our appreciation to Bill for all he gave us, both physically and spiritually. Although he is no longer with us, he will always be a part of our class.

FOREWORD

Between the Susquehanna and the Chemung rivers stands the small town of Athens, Pennsylvania, while 7,000 miles away in the Mediterranean Sea, the age-old city of Athens, Greece, stands shrouded in her past glories. In Athens, Pennsylvania, about 2242 young people attend school in one of the finest educational systems in the world, but the children of many other countries such as Greece are not so fortunate. Unfortunately, we Americans are not always quick to realize this fact.

Many years ago, an early settler, who came to what was then Tioga Point, stated that the town reminded him of Athens, Greece, because of the geographical similarity. The citizens of the community became interested and the name of the town was changed to Athens. Today we students of the Senior Class base the theme of our book on Athens, Greece.

You have an appointment with the future.

Each graduating class feels that it is meeting the greatest problems and challenges the world has ever known, and, perhaps, that is true. As man has increased his knowledge and applied it to controlling his environment he has created multitudes of new problems which has caused a demand for more education and new skills. Long accepted moral, political and social standards have been challenged. As scientific and technological advances have been made, the complexity of living has increased and continues to increase. Thus, each graduating class feels its challenge is the greatest and yours is no exception.

Preceding generations have made their contributions to science, literature, the arts, religion, political science and all areas of human endeavor. They have explored the unknown and at times people has asked "what is left to be done?" Until now you have been assimilating a knowledge of work, accomplishments and failures of past generations. Today you are standing on the threshold of a new world--one much more challenging than that faced by Columbus; more exciting than that of Edison; more demanding than that of Churchill. Although mankind has made wonderful advances in the physical aspects of living, he has just begun. Undreamed of developments lie ahead. But it is in living with each other that man has most consistently failed. In the years which lie ahead challenge lies in the modification and control of our socio-economic machinery and governments so that all peoples of the world may share the products of science and automation in peace, mutual respect and confidence.

Sharing in this challenge is the appointment you have. It is our hope that you will be found willing and prepared to keep your appointment and in keeping it we wish for you every happiness and success.

Sincerely,

George E. Triluh

TO THE SENIORS OF 1957:

It was my pleasure about a year ago to be one of more than 4000 people to hear a speech by Kenneth McFarland which he entitled "The Lamp Lighters." The thoughts he expressed I will never forget and I would like to share them with you.

A lamp lighter in this case is one who, through his associations with other people, puts a new light in their faces. No worthier ambition could pervade the heart of anyone. It can apply to every walk of life. It will lead to happy and successful living.

The first characteristic of these lamp lighters is that they must have an inner light of their own. It is this inner light that lets them see how to do the right thing properly. It permits them to see how things are with the other person and thus how to get into their lives with them. It is this understanding that prevents one from making the tragic mistake of believing that there are two sets of rules, one for himself and one for other people.

To keep this inner light, one must have a source from which to keep refueled. It must be a spiritual source potent enough to produce an emotional drive that will keep one doing the right thing. Merely to know the right thing is not enough. It is the doing that brings the satisfaction and makes one become like the lamp lighter of old that Sir Harry Lauder liked to tell about in his home town in Scotland. The old lamp lighter went from street light to street light, climbed a ladder and ignited the wick. All who came by later, though they did not see the lamp lighter, knew where he had been by the glow of the lamps he had lighted.

Sincerely,

Irving W. Hazard

Athens High School is very fortunate to have three such devoted and efficient secretaries as Mrs. Arnold, Mrs. Southee, and Mrs. Rogers. Mrs. Arnold serves as secretary to Dr. Fitch and to the Board of Education. Mrs. Rogers, who assists in the main office, is also doing a fine job. Mrs. Southee, Mr. Hazard's capable secretary, is also a friend and counselor to all of the students of the high school.

FUTURE

SENIORS

UNDERCLASSMEN

The major portion of our school population is made up of our underclassmen. Too little attention is paid to these students. We feel that even the newest seventh grader is as loyal an Athenian as the most hardened senior.

To these students this portion of our 116th Athenian is devoted. From the Senior Class of 1957 best wishes to our Seniors of the future.

SR. HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

For twenty years the Athens High School Student Council has been in active operation. Under the present set-up, the student body elects the vice president from the junior class and the following year he in turn becomes president of the high school. The secretary and treasurer are elected by the student council. The officers are John Lynch, president; Vince Raupers, vice president; Mary Alice Cimmens, secretary; and Jack Northrup, treasurer.

The student council has a meeting scheduled every week over which the high school president, John Lynch, presides under the supervision of our faculty advisor, Dr. Clyde Bresee.

Two of the recent major achievements of the student council are the organizing of a Junior High Student Council and the adoption of an orphan from Greece, whom the students of A.H.S. are now faithfully supporting.

Every Thursday the student council could be found busily forming new laws and revising the old ones. Many motions promoted fiery discussions which ended in either a new law or in rejection by a majority of the vote. This year, effective legislation concerning sanitation, courtesy and responsibility has been passed--proving that our student council is an ever functioning organization.

The functions of the student council are to make rules for the good of the school and to help with the general planning and functioning of school affairs. It is considered an honor to be a member of the student council.

JR. HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

The Junior High Student Council is made up of 16 members, all of whom are from 7th, 8th, and, 9th grades. The able officers are as follows: Gerald Harding, the hardworking president, Robert Weiss supporting vice president, Gloria Slater the secretary, Jack Firestine the treasurer, and Jo Anne Baker correspondent.

Since the Junior High Student Council is a new organization at Athens, a committee has drawn up a constitution this year consisting of standards and rules. The purpose of the council is stated and how members are elected and how they are removed (if need be), with amendments and by-laws. The constitution was read twice before the council and was accepted.

The Junior High Student Council works independently of the Senior High Student Council, although the two councils did have a meeting together about the Honor System. There were three Junior High Student Council representatives, three Senior High, and three faculty members present.

One of their accomplishments was their collection for Charles Doty's family whose home burned. Larry Green delivered $18.22 to this family which was collected from Junior High homerooms only.

The Junior High Student Council worked on the following problems: snowballing at noon hours, a cleaning campaign of the school grounds, and suggestion boxes in the shop and in the Home Economics building.

This newly formed organization fills a long felt need in our rapidly growing school.

Few people realize the tremendous amount of work which is required to put out the Athenian. The publication of this yearbook was no exception. First the staff has to pick a theme for the book and get the first installment to the publisher. With hard work and a little luck these feats were accomplished.

After the Christmas vacation, the staff settles down on the second copy.

This portion of the book dealt with the activities and the sports sections and caused many problems. However, Lady Luck paid another visit and the staff managed to finish the hardest part of the book.

This year's staff was composed of the literary, art, and advertising groups. Many thanks also go to the patrons, advisors and all of the other people who helped to make the Athenian possible.

The Athens chapter of the Future Homemakers of America now has a membership of forty girls. The club having the motto "Toward New Horizons" is under the capable leadership of Mrs. Broughten. It is characterized by the red rose and colors red and white. Regular meetings are held in the Home Ec. rooms during activities periods. To raise money, the girls have sponsored bake sales and dances, which included the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance; they have sold cook books and have made and sold Christmas corsages and earrings. The club continually works toward a future of happy and secure homes.

Future Farmer's All! This club, limited to Agricultural students, has been progressing since 1935 under the able direction of Marshall J. VanScoten, better known as "Van". The aim of the club is to understand and improve farming methods. Each student has a different project to undertake on which he must keep clear, close and accurate records.

Each member of the club is sporting a bright blue corduroy jacket with his name, office he holds and the national F.F.A. Emblem on the back.

FNA

Two new clubs formed this year at Athens High School were the Future Teachers of America and the Future Nurses of America. The F.T.A. is under the direction of Mr. Leonard Gabriel and the F.N.A. is under the direction of Miss Edith Hine.

Since it is customary to name the F.T.A. chapters after a noted educator from the area, the Athens chapter was named the Irving W. Hazard Chapter. Typical activities of the F.T.A. are student teaching, story-telling, tutoring, and observing classes on various grade levels.

The F.N.A. participates in such activities as taking field trips, making visits to special departments of hospitals, performing volunteer service at the Robert Packer Hospital, preparing favors for trays at holiday time, and entertaining many guest speakers.

The annual science fair of Bradford County is made possible through the co-operation of the Science Teachers Associations of Bradford County. Last year such industries as Du Pont, Sylvania, Ingersoll Rand, and Westinghouse contribute prizes of bonds and gold cups. Prizes consisted of a Grand Prize plus first and second prizes for each division.

The fair is held in the Towanda S. C. I. Building. Last year The Daily Review assumed responsibility of setting up tables and preparing the hall. The Evening Times printed all entry blanks. Judges from Sylvania, Ingersoll Rand, and the Robert Packer Hospital as well as individuals not affiliated with any scientific concern. To qualify to enter a student must be taking a science course. He must submit an entry blank for one of the following classes: Biology, Human Biology, Engineering, Conservation, General Science, Physics, or chemistry. Each student is allowed a 3 x 4 foot space and must set up his exhibit only.

Last year, Bill Reynolds won first prize in the Human Biology division with an exhibition of the circulatory system. Bill Molyneaux won honorable mention on his self made lucite base transmitter and power plant. Other entries were a model of the brain by Nancy Fitch, a one-tube radio by James Pruyne, and a leaf collection by Marilyn and Carolyn Lupton.

SCIENCE FAIR

When President Bill Molyneaux opens the Science Club meeting every week, anything can happen. Generally the meeting takes the form of a bull session in which members discuss their Science Fair projects--this has on occasion led to vigorous, but friendly arguments, giving Secretary Sandra Rowe some interesting things to record, especially when the subject of solar batteries and electronics comes up. Sometimes we have speakers, and we plan to take a couple of trips to places like Sylvania before the year's end.

Our main purpose is preparing projects, discussing our ideas and telling about the progress made is an incentive for working, and much of the friendly criticism goes into the projects in the shape of improvements. We are certain that our members will make a fine showing this year at Athens.

The Thespians are in their fourth year at Athens High School after being organized in November 1953. The troupe is number 482.

The National Thespians Society is a non-secret, honorary organization. To be a Thespian, a person must have had a certain number of lines in the Junior or Senior Play.

The members who were inducted last year were: Jack Northrup, Danice Noldy, Jay Cole, Judy Baker, and Elaine Perry. The new members this year are; Jim Fox, Vic Cohen, Jerry Firestine, Connie North, and Barbara Rider.

The 10th grade Dramatics Club is composed of students interested in furthering their knowledge in the dramatic field. These students learn the proper use of stage vocabulary, speech, stage effects, and make-up. The presentation of two one act plays: "The Impossible Room" and "The Search for Brian Murphy" by Roberta Ackley, a member of the organization, are their outstanding achievements of the year.

The club comes under the direction of Mrs. Volechinesky, a competent advisor. The officers are: Cecelia Collins, president; Peter Hartwick, vice president; Joan Northrup, secretary; Sheila Lane, treasurer; Judy Miller, reporter; and John Newbury and Roberta Ackley, advertising committee.

The club is of great value to the students as it improves their stage presence and teaches them the qualities of a good speaking voice. Many students that participate in this organization are interested in making dramatics their career. Certainly membership in this club aids in achievement of this goal.

PIGSKIN CHASERS

One of the oldest and most prominent in the long line of activities at Athens High School is the Pigskin Chasers. The only requirement to be a member of this club, which is made up mostly of boys, is to have a letter in one of the many sports offered at Athens High School.

The cheerleaders, who are honorary members, take part in the various activities of the pigskin chasers. One of these; is the publication of the annual Athens vs. Waverly Program booklet. This includes pictures of both teams and bands, also highlights of the games throughout the year.

The officers this year are: president, Bob Warner; secretary, Stan Hugo; treasurer, Gary Sumner; sergeant-at-arms, Jim Bean; and faculty advisor, Coach John Childs.

The purpose of the French Club is to stimulate interest in the French language, customs, and education. Another purpose is to develop time for activities which cannot be done in class. As an aid in learning the language and more about the French people, the students will correspond with some students in France in their native language.

Anyone interested in French may belong. This year's membership is 20 students who meet every other activity period.

The president this year is Danice Noldy with Mary Alice Cimmons acting as vice president. The secretary is Sandra Hoffman and the treasurer is Art Minier. A new office this year is reporter, which is held by Vince Raupers. The duty of the reporter is to report news of the French Club to the Evening Times. The club this year is under the capable direction of the new French teacher, Miss Clare Geiring.

On the evening of December 21, 1956, the junior class of Athens High presented the annual Junior-Senior prom. "Fantasy in Frost", which was their theme made it one of the coolest proms ever.

The gym was cleverly embellished with gayly colored snowflakes which enthused all who attended. To add to the wintry effect, many small trees sprinkled with snow were in the setting. To complete the theme title, "Fantasy in Frost", an enormous revolving snowman was the center of attraction in the gym.

Music was provided by the Starlighters Orchestra, which contributed greatly to the success of this year's Junior Prom.

Featured at one of our most out-standing events of the year, was the crowning of the king and queen. Seniors Margo Eike and Bob Yale were crowned by vice president of the high school, Vince Raupers.

The Bulldogs opened their victorious season by defeating St. Michaels. It is the first perfect season since 1951. The first R. T. L. win was over Towanda which proved to be another easy victory: The Bulldogs came through brilliantly in the traditional encounter with our big rival, Sayre. For the fourth and fifth wins the Bulldogs racked up big scores over Newark Valley and Edison High. Troy was whipped for another R. T. L. win. Canton, supposedly the big game of the year, was crushed and the Bulldogs took the R. T. L. Championship.

During the half time of the Homecoming game (Canton), Elaine Perry was crowned football queen, attended by Sandra Scaife and Mary Alice Cimmons.

Waverly was the final victim for the Bulldogs, winding up an undefeated season of eight games.

As the whistle blew for opening practice a brand new Athens Junior Varsity football team took the field. Ed Chase was new at the position of J. V. coach although he had served as assistant to the varsity coach, John Childs, the previous year.

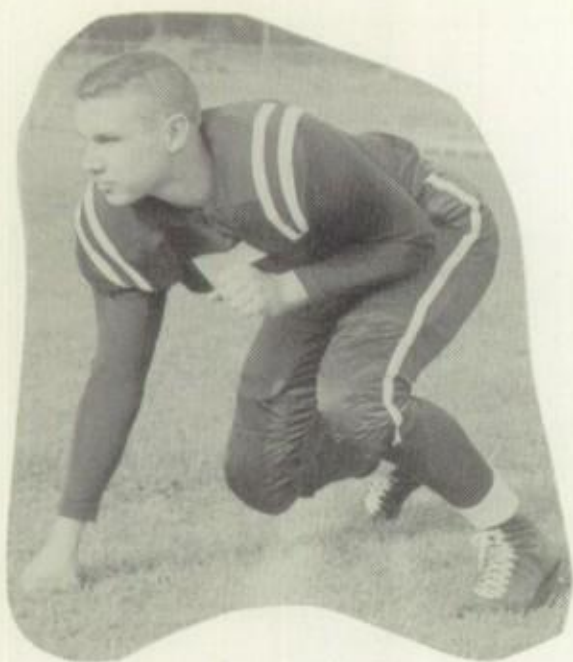

Coach Chase, a confirmed disciple of the Split T formation had come up with a bunch of fleet backs who ran like the proverbial scared rabbit and a rugged gang of linemen who were harder to crack than a stone wall.

September 29th the team made its debut under the lights at the Lockhart Street Bowl. It was the young Bulldogs all the way 26-7. It continued thus throughout the season, until the Waverly game when having put up a tough struggle in the torrenting rain, the Bulldogs had to settle for a 6-6 tie. Athens' young Bulldogs finished the season with a 4 wins 1 tie record plus the J.V. Roosevelt Trail League title and the Valley Championship.

1957 has brought many things to Athens High including a varsity basketball team of which we are all justly proud.

Again this year—as in the past—the Bulldogs defeated all competition and emerged Roosevelt Trail League Champions.

An accomplishment of this nature would not have been possible without many hours of practice and preparation under a capable coaching staff headed by Mr. Tom Jones.

The Athens Junior Varsity Basketball team once more captured the Roosevelt Trail League title. This marks the fifth year out of the last six that the little Bulldogs have taken this honor. Such an achievement is not gotten without much hard work and practice. Each boy is expected to give all he has for the team.

This year coach Ken Oakes had very good material for a Jay-vee squad. However, his entire starting line-up will be lost to the Varsity next year. We sincerely wish the best of luck to the boys on next year's team to equal or even surpass this year's fine record.

These hardworking, energetic, and vivacious band of girls add color and spirit to our athletic performances.

In choosing the new cheerleaders, ability, leadership, appearance, and general behavior suitable to a representative of our school are essentials that are kept in mind.

The J.V. Cheerleaders are selected by the varsity cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. Jones. The Varsity Cheerleaders are chosen by members of the faculty. These girls serve as excellent representatives of our fine Athens High School.

CHAMPS

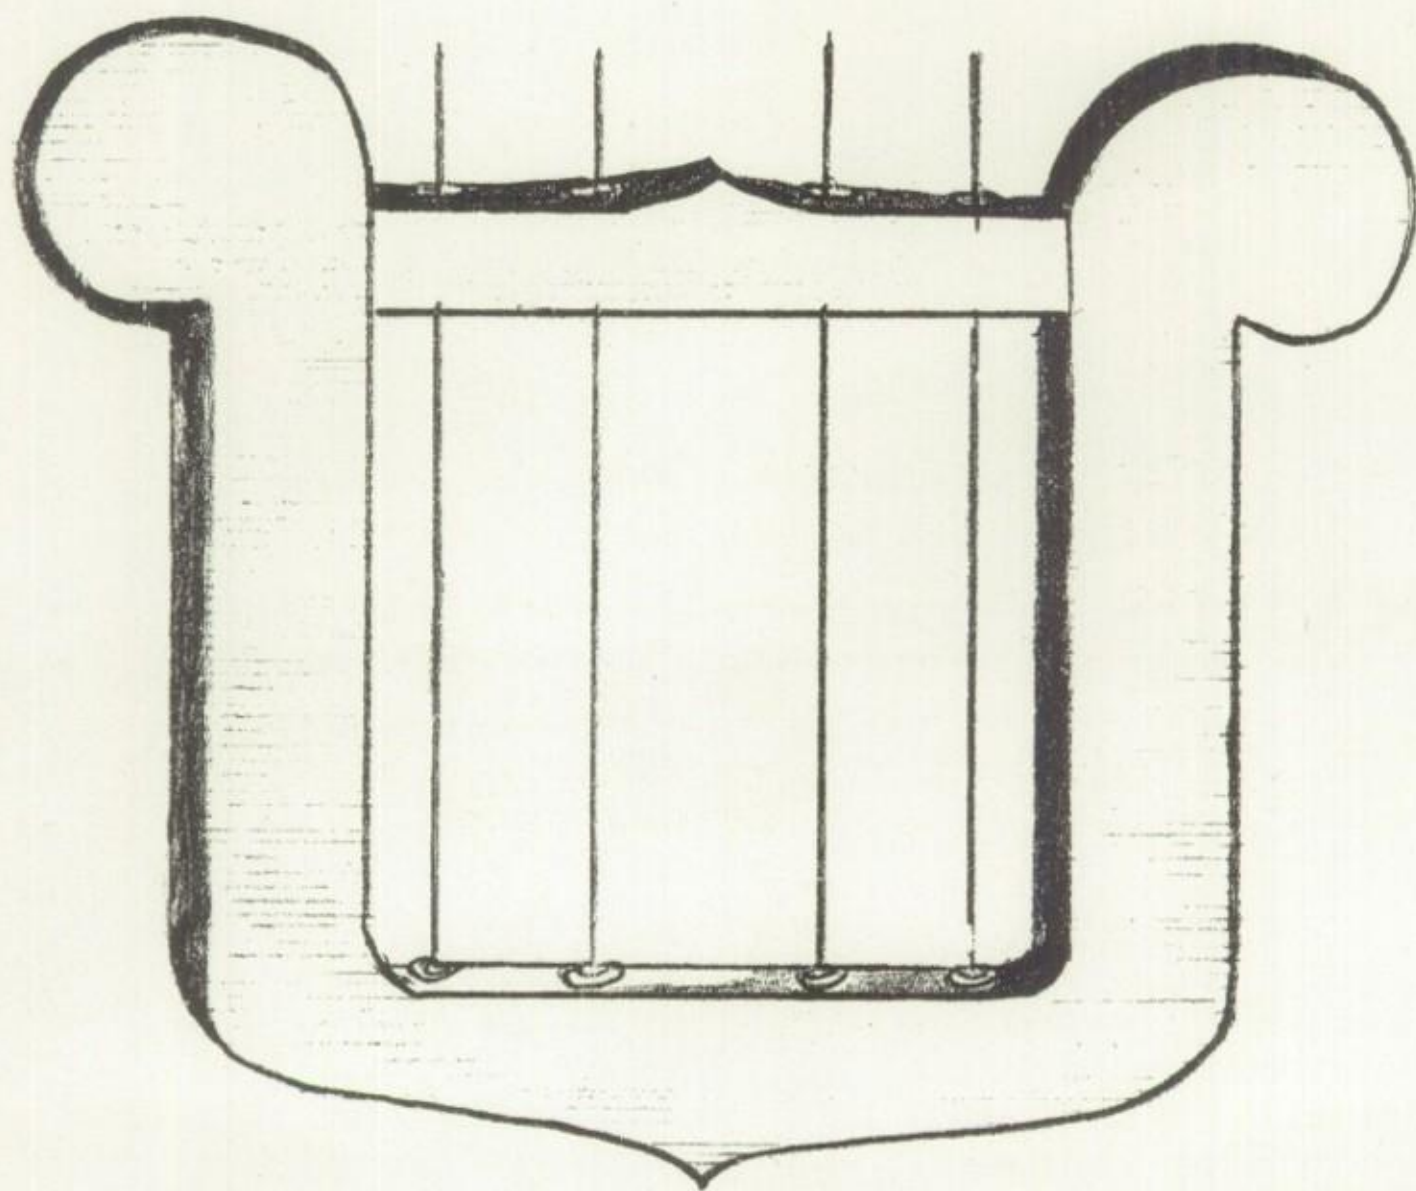

Seldom does a high school produce both championship basketball and football teams in the same year. Such has, however, been our good fortune at Athens. To these teams we proudly dedicate this page.

The first of these teams was our basketball squad of last spring who carried the Athens banner farther than it had ever gone before in this sport.

The second was our Fightin' Bulldogs who downed all opposition and ended the season undefeated.

Congratulations!

SENIOR

The senior high mixed chorus is exactly what it says. This organization is made up of sixty boys and girls who are genuinely interested in music and who are under the competent guidance of Miss Wood. These sixty are divided into four groups: altos, tenors, sopranos, and basses. This year the accompanist for this group is Danice Noldy, an excellent pianist. These boys and girls are representatives from grades ten, eleven, and twelve.

Every Tuesday and Thursday this hard working group meets during fifth period. The chorus rehearsals are definitely not in vain, appearances. In the winter, the chorus presents a Christmas Concert. The concert is composed of carols, the traditional dramatization of the Christmas story, and new Christmas songs. The members of the cast wear uniform clothes for these performances. The girls usually wear white blouses and dark skirts while the boys harmonize with this combination by wearing white shirts and dark trousers.

FRONT ROW: G. Sumner, S. Hugo, J. Graham, M. Young, M. Selleck, B. Zulkosky, C. Cady. SECOND ROW: J. Riley, C. Olmstead, S. Regn, J. Hunsinger, M. Lynch, P. Brittain, G. Snyder. THIRD ROW: G. CHORUS

The Spring Concert, for which many preparations are made, features songs of great variety. The performers dress in a manner appropriate to this special occasion. The girls are gaily bedecked in colorful evening gowns and the boys are neatly arrayed in their white shirts and dark trousers. The chorus also sings for the last and most memorable performance of all--commencement.

This year for the first time the members of this organization elected a Chorus Board. The officers on this board are Jack Riley, president, and Lloyd Hammond, secretary. Representatives from each section: P. Blauvelt, soprano; Stan Hugo, tenor; John Lynch, bass; and Joan Kandelin, alto. The purpose of this board is to select the music for the chorus and help plan concerts.

Members of the chorus represent our school at various events. This year there were twelve students sent to the county chorus at Wyalusing. District chorus, held in Tunkhannock included our representatives Joan Kandelin, Clair Wandell, and Jack Northrup. Clair Wandell was the delegate to state chorus which was held in Washington, Pa.

The endless hours of preparation are rewarded by the sterling performance which the chorus members present and the audience hears.

TRIPLE TRIO

This musical organization, under the competent guidance of Miss Wood, was organized in 1941. Originally it was only a sextette, but in order to be a more general music group it was enlarged to become the Triple Trio.

The girls are representatives from the junior and senior classes. Besides the vocalists, the accompanist is a student--this year it is Danice Noldy, a very talented pianist.

The Triple Trio, needless to say, is composed of nine girls singing alto, second soprano, and soprano. The girls chosen for this club must have real singing ability. Incidentally, these girls sing in three parts which is more difficult than singing in unison.

The members of the organization for the past years have been wearing identical outfits. This year they were neatly bedecked in grey dresses with a saucy red trim.

These girls can be seen practicing every Wednesday for an hour after school. When they perform for special programs they practice at least twice a week. Their efforts are rewarded, for they sing for assembly programs and Baccalaureate, also for such organizations as the Lions Club, Library Club, University Club, Eastern Star, Monday Club, radio station W. A. T. S. and the Christmas and Spring concerts. They sing a wide variety of music ranging from classical favorites to excerpts from operettas.

Our school has received many compliments after the performances of these girls. We at Athens High School are proud and honored to have such a talented group in our school.

This year the annual Christmas Concert was presented by the Senior High chorus, aided by the Triple Trio under the direction of Miss Emma Wood. To start the Christmas Concert in the spirit, the chorus proceeded down the aisle singing "O Come All Ye Faithful." A few members carried candles which shone brightly in the dimmed auditorium.

The first half of the program consisted of a number of religious songs. Each was narrated by a member of the chorus.

During the intermission Jack Northrup presented "Aunt Emma" with a gift of the chorus's esteem and appreciation for her never-ending interest in the chorus.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

The second half portrayed the opposite aspect of Christmas. The scene was a busy city side walk with couples hurrying to finish their last minute shopping. The Triple Trio presented a number of songs; one of them was "Mr. Santa" who was portrayed by Norman Allen.

The stage was decorated by two huge toy store windows. There were also two lamp posts on either end. All this led to a very successful and enjoyable concert.

SENIOR

When the Athens High School Band took the field for the football opener against St. Michaels, it marked the twentieth year of the band's existence in the valley. It was originally organized in 1937 by Dante Coccagnia and it was the first high school band in the area to wear a full uniform of the school's colors. Since that time, the band has continually improved under Mr. Coccagnia, Ernest Rolston, and the present director, Richard Swetland.

Being a member of the band is no part-time affair. In order for anyone or any organization to improve, it must have plenty of practice, and that is exactly what the band requires. To prepare for the football season, practices are held at different times through the summer as well as all through the autumn months.

BAND

Then when the sore lips and numb fingers are just starting to heal, it's practice for three or four more months to prepare for the annual concert.

This year's concert, held on March 9, provided a great variety of music. There were the usual marches as well as quick, light Latin American numbers, semi-popular, and jazz arrangements. The concert was given spark by a novelty selection as well as roles by some of the senior numbers.

Each fall the band elects officers to serve throughout the year. This year Margo Eike was president, Dorothy Bennett, vice-president and Sally McKeel, secretary-treasurer. With these capable people as officers it is no wonder that the band enjoyed such a successful season.

SENIOR BAND MEMBERS

The Athens Senior Band is going to suffer a great loss when these nine musicians graduate. All nine have been in the band for the last four years. Duane and Clair have been in the Senior Band since sixth grade.

Out of this nine we have four very able trumpet players. They are Duane Klinko, Clair Wandell, Janet Hunsinger, and Ernest Beam. Margo Eike is the first clarinet, while Marcia Mullen is the second clarinet in the band. Jack Northrup plays a French horn. Dorothy Bennett plays a nice baritone and Jo Ann Simons is a very good saxaphonist. Band sweaters were received by these nine band members for being in the band for three years.

SENIOR CHORUS

In our Senior High Chorus of voices, twenty-three are seniors, seventeen of whom have earned one full credit, since they have been with the chorus for their three years of senior high school. These members have helped to make the appearances of the Senior High Chorus in such activities as graduation, Christmas concerts, and cantatas a full success.

In the soprano section there are Phyliss Blauvelt, Margo Eike, Janet Hunsinger, Marcia Mullen, Wilma Parker, Sandra Scaife, and Barbara Zulkosky. The altos consist of Nancy Alexander, Judy Baker, Joan Kandelin, Connie North, Elaine Perry, Barbara Rider, and Lois Robinson. George Ford, Stanley Hugo, John Northrup, Jack Riley, Gary Sumner, and Clair Wandell make up the tenor section. Basses are Duane Klinko and John Lynch. Danice Noldy is the accompanist this year after two years of singing.

DISTRICT BAND

Each year, the Pennsylvania Educators Association holds the district chorus and band. These events are held in one of the 60 schools which make up our district. Each of these schools select its finest vocalists and musicians and submits their names to the P.M.E.A. headquarters, which selects the students for the event.

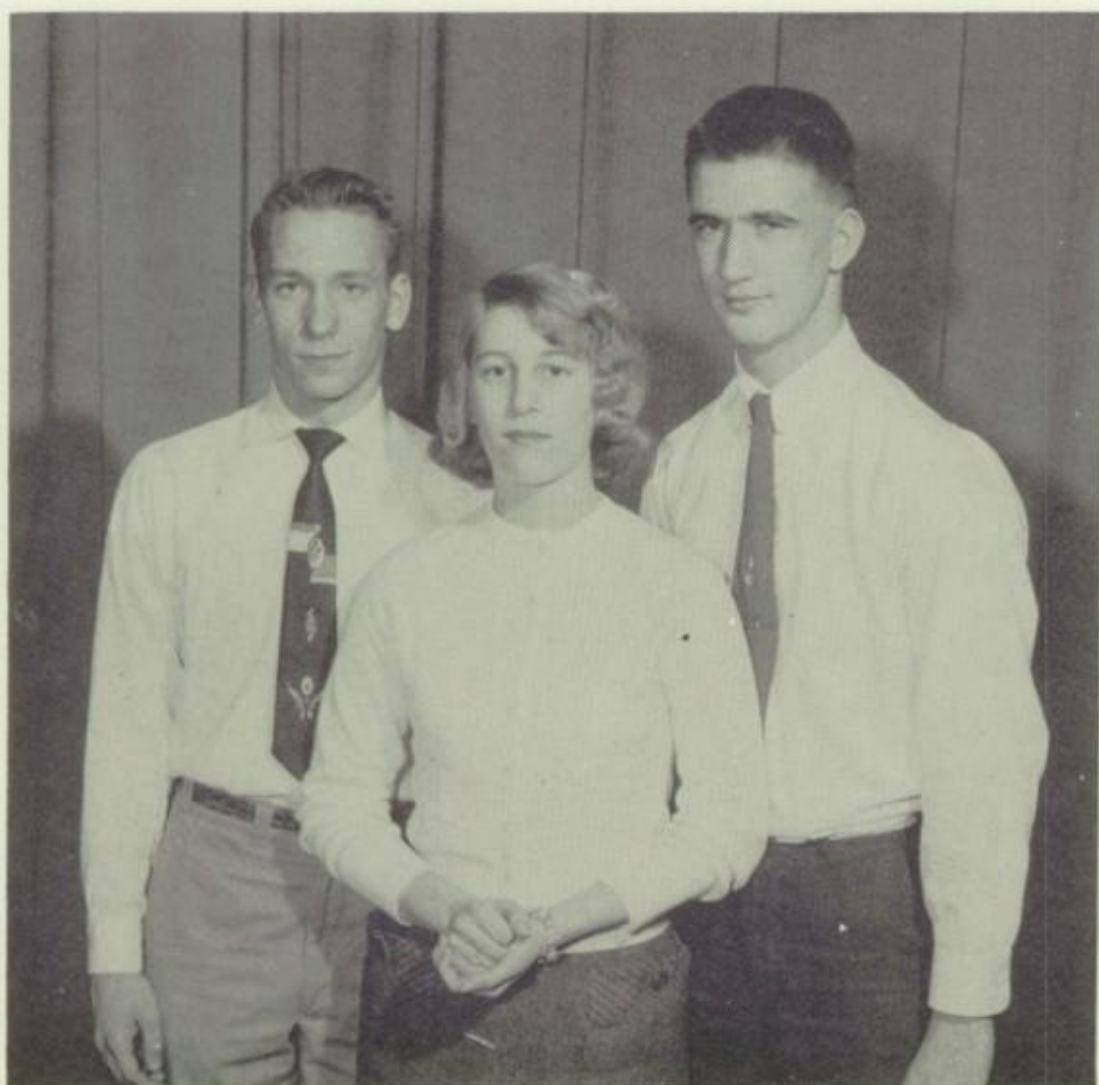

This year, Joan Kandelin, Jack Northrup, and Clair Wandell were selected for the district chorus. On January 17, they traveled to Tunkhannoch to participate in the three-day event.

DISTRICT CHORUS

Upon arrival they were assigned to the private home where they were to stay and begin practice immediately. After their grueling days of hard practice, the chorus gave a very fine concert on Saturday night to climax the festival.

One month later the annual district band was held in Clark Summit. Four students from Athens were fortunate enough to be chosen for this event. They were Margo Eike, Lynn Cooper, Leigh Cooper and Bob Sickler. These students followed the same procedure as the chorus members, winding up with a wonderful concert on Saturday, February 16.

CAFETERIA

Each day, about eleven o'clock, the pleasant aroma of the forthcoming dinner finds its way through the halls of Athens High School.

The majority of the students eat in the cafeteria where they enjoy a well-balanced meal served daily, which is planned with the provisions of the National School Lunch Act in mind.

These meals are prepared under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Shannon, Manager, and her co-workers, Mrs. Ann Gordon, Mrs. Joyce Brennan, and Mrs. Pearl Parke.

The cafeteria is a non-profit project which was established in 1949 and has been running successfully ever since. The cafeteria was built in the summer of that year to provide a warm, balanced lunch for students who are unable to go to their homes for lunch.

The student body greatly appreciates the efforts put forth by the Board of Education and the Cafeteria Staff to provide a lunch program.

MAINTENANCE

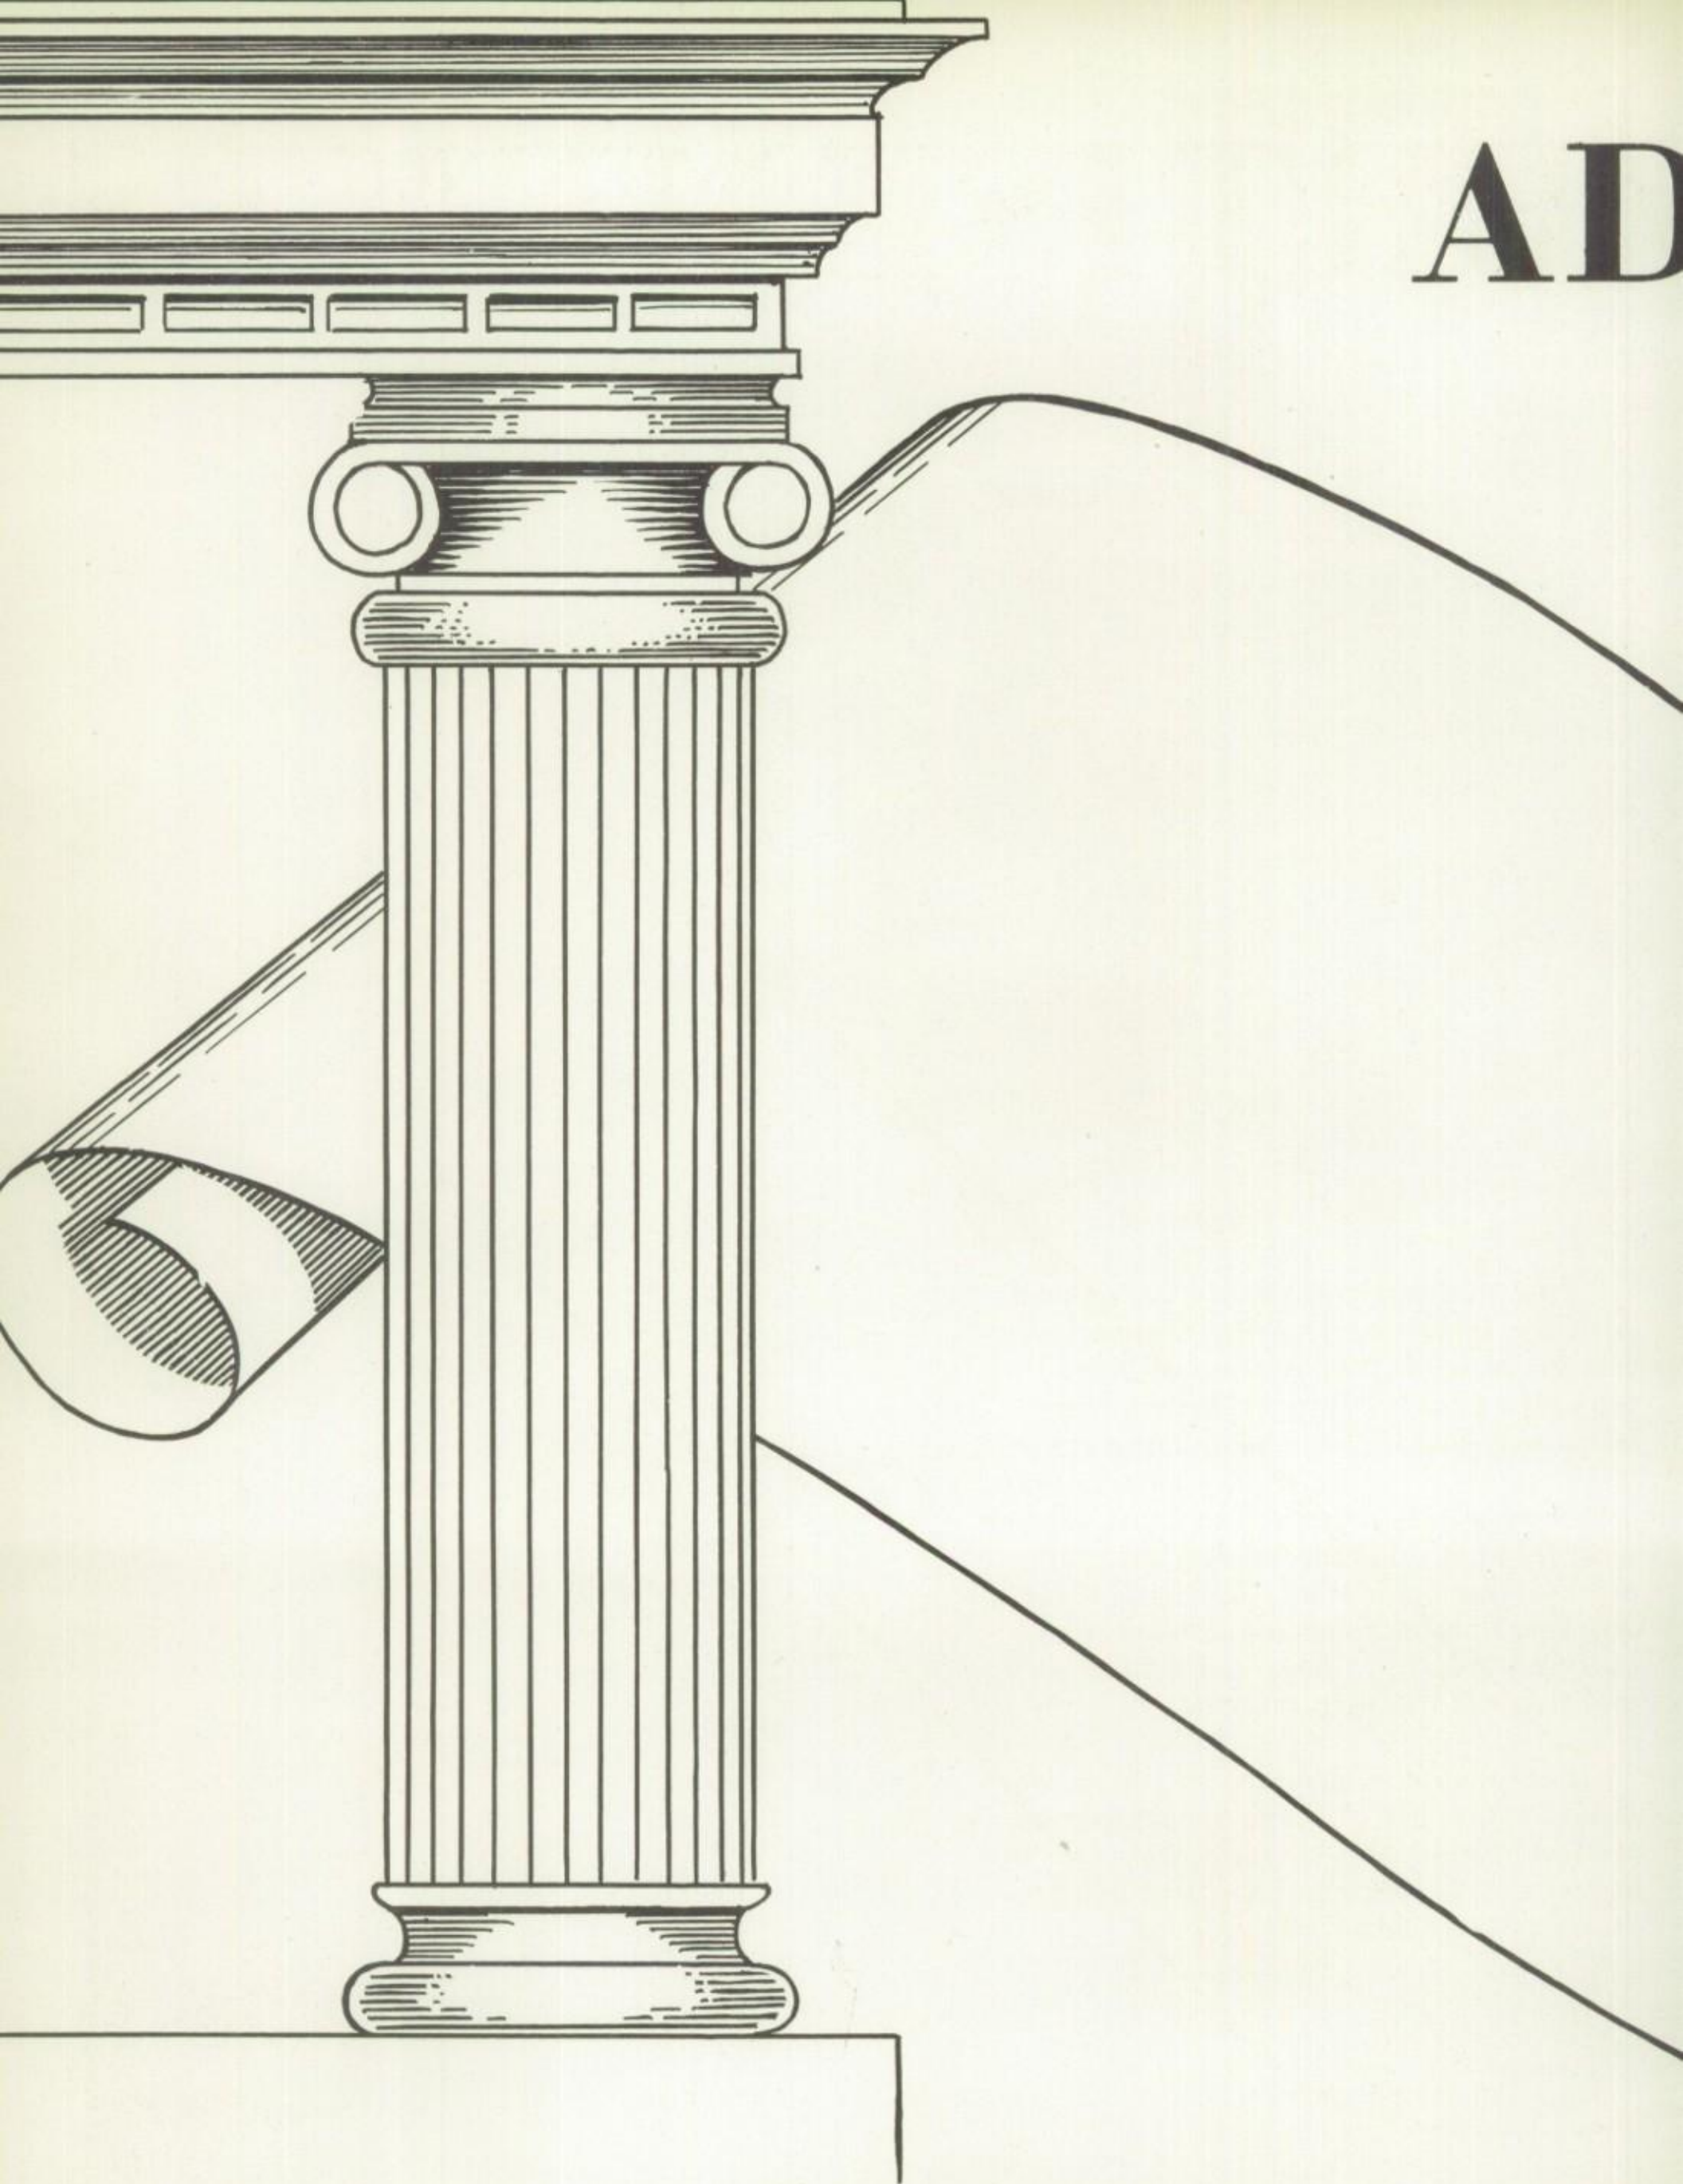

Few students and people connected with the school realize the tremendous amount of work that is done by Mrs. Stowell, Charles Throp, Thomas Holbert, and Russell Seymour for the school.

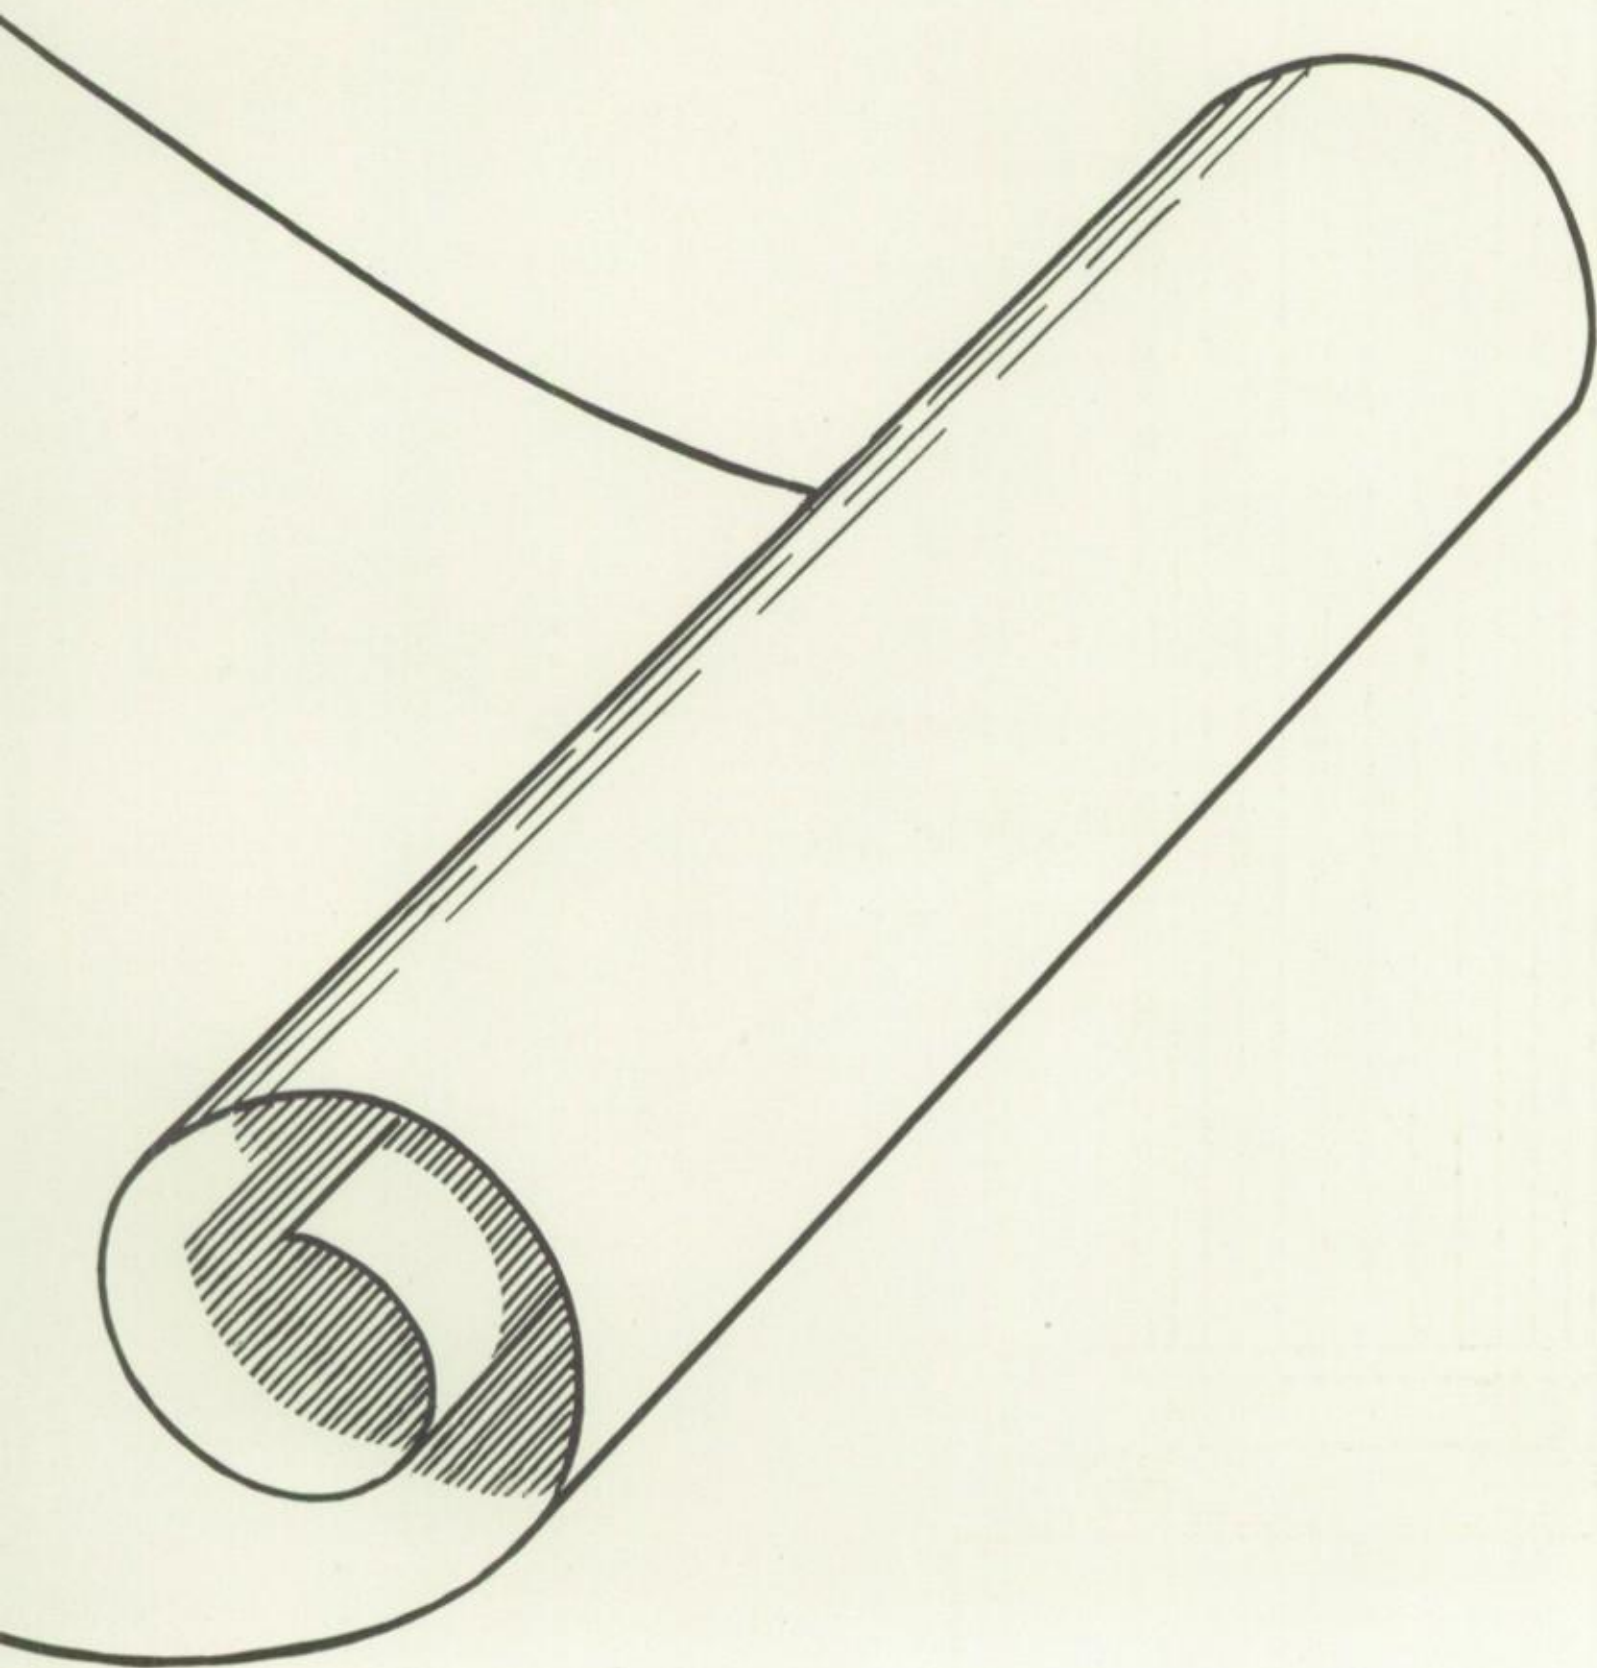

They are always willing to help with such things as dances, plays, and other off-the-job activities. During the school day this helpful foursome can be seen hurrying around to keep our school neat and tidy all the way around.

Everyone connected with the school should thank all of these people personally for the helpful and co-operative way they have made it possible for all of us to be proud of our school.
